PUBLIC ORGAN RECITAL

AT BROADWAY CHURCH Under Auspices of Norwich Music As sociation, Next Monday Evening -Women's Chorus to Sing.

An organ recital is to be held Monday evening, February 5th, in Broad-way church, under the auspices of the Norwich Music Association.

Norwich Music Association.

This will be an occasion of general interest, as all members of the community are invited. No cards of admission will re required and the attendance will only be limited by the desire of the public and the capacity of the audience room.

the audience room.

The program will open with three organ numbers by Frederick W. Lester: Toccata and Fugue in D minor, Bach; Andantine (from 2nd Suite) Boellman; Marche Fuebre et Chant Seraphique, Guilmant. Then will follow a solo by Charles D. Geer Prolow a solo by Charles D. Geer, Pro Peccatis (from Stabat Mater) Rossini. Two selections upon the organ will be given, Lengend (To a Deserted Farm)
MacDowell; Variations on an American ULMER LEATHER CO.

Air, Flagler.

A feature of unusual interest will be the appearance for the first time since its inception, of the Women's Chorus of the Norwich Music Association. This chorus of forty women's voices, pledged to the presentation of music of high standard, under the able leadership of C. D. Geer, fills a need that has been felt in the community for several years. The chorus is financed by the Music Association and marks the ac-complishment of one of the many lines of work that are the ultimate ambition of the association.

The last number, and one that will lend especial interest to the program, will be a concerto for the piano in E flat by Liszt, with organ accompain-ment. This is one of the most pop-ular concertos for the piano and while it makes exacting demands upon the technic of the performer, is very mel-

Mabel Taliaferro in "The Sunbeam"-Heart and the Last Chapter of "The Crimson Stain Mystery" Features For Today.

A love story that lingers in the heart, is The Sunbeam, the great Metro production with Mabel Taliaferro as her as a living sunbeam, shedding warmth and happiness amid the chills and shadows of poverty. The story of "The Sunbeam" was written by Shannon Fife, whose splendid fiction tales have won world-wide prominence for him. It was picturized by June Mathis, one of the greatest of scenario writers.

No production could bring out the wonderful artistic ability of Miss Tallaferro stronger than does "The Sunbeam". As a sweet, pure generous-hearted working girl of the tenements of New York city, the part of Prue Mason, taken by Miss Tallaferro calls for emotional acting of a delicate and subdued type at one time, and extreme vivaciousness at the next. These varying degrees of her art Miss Tallafero brings out with tremendous effect.

Sunporting the star are such noted.

Which more than doubled those of 1907, which, showing earnings amounting to $169,264,674, stood as the record year until the close of 1916.

The total earnings for the quarter covered in today's statement compare with the total of $85,817,067 for the third quarter of 1916, a sum which then constituted a record. Similarly, new high figures were established in net income, $96,321,610 for the final quarter as compared with $76,202,408 during the third period.

Growth in Income.

The total 1916 earnings compare with $140,250,066 in 1915, and are larger by more than 450 per cent. than those of 1904, the lowest year, when they were $73,176,522.

Supporting the star are such noted actors as Raymond McKee, Gerald Griffin, David Thompson, Helen Alex-endria and Lillian Shaffner, and Mrs. the common shares for 1916 amount areyer. Mr. Griffin, in the part of Stephen Rutherford, a wealthy candy manufacturer, displays all his remarkable ability as a character actor. The Breed will also present the closing chapter of "The Crimson Stain Mystery." This chapter solves the mystery and tells you who the Crimson Stain is.

THE AUDITORIUM.

Amusement Committee of Commor Council to Investigate War's Women Picture Today-Booked for Today and Thursday-Watch for Their shown at the Auditorium today and Thursday. There has been some question as to the advisability of allowing its being shown in Norwich and Manager Schwartz has arranged with each member of the committee together with the press to show it during the morning. Frank Keenan, who plays in this picture with Enid Trkey, is perhaps one of the leading actors of the present stage and has become famous through his efforts in this picture. It is a picture which carries with it a plea for preparedness and is surely a photoplay with a purpose. No such production has met with such general approval as has War's Women and at the same time carries with it the tersame time carries with it the terrible realization of war episodes.

With this feature, which consists of with this feature, which consists of eight reels, is a one reel comedy entitled, "Cupid's Caddies." This reel is full of fun and is surely most entertaining to follow the previous picture with its realistic side of life. This show was booked several weeks ago and will undoubtedly prove to be one of the seasons headliners.

Three Big Keith Acts and Triangle Photoplays-New Show Tomorrow.

If you want to get full value for your money, don't fail to see the show which closes a three days' engagement at the Davis today, there are three big Keith acts and everyone is a headline attraction, the feature position is filled by the Conin Parks Trio, two men and a woman who present one of the finest comedy singing, taiking and dancing skits ever seen here, they are original and keep everyone in laughter the whole time they are on the stage. Another good act is King on the stage. Another good act is King and Harvey, two men who present a singing act that is well worth hearing. Both have splendid voices and their comedy is funny. The third act is John Goss, an old time minstrel man who sings and tells stories, finishing with playing the bones and Mr. Goss can play them. All three acts are good and you should see them today. The photoplay feature is Clara Williams in the five-part Triangle play, "Three of Many." Three of Many.'

Ini "Three of Many" Miss Williams is seen in the role of a trained nurse. is seen in the role of a trained nurse, of Italian parentage, living in a boarding house typical of New York's middle-classes. Living in the same house is Paul Gordoza, an Itaian, and Emil Vorstman, an Austrian, both struggling upward to success, and the three become friends. When the war breaks out, both men leave America ot fight for their countries, while the nurse is eventually persuaded to join Extra Disbursement of $8,895,294. disbursement calls for an outlay of $8,895,294.

This makes the total dividend disbursements for the fourth quarter, including the regular 1 1-4 per cent. common dividend and the usual 1 2-4 per cent. on the preferred stock, amount to $21,533,996. Some surprise was expressed in financial quarters because the directors did not declare a larger dividend return in the face of the enormous earnings of the fourth quarter.
